Alumni Profile

Sydney Pollack

Central '51

Submitted by Larry Giantomos,
With editorial comments

The loss of Sydney Pollack is a great sadness for all of us who went to Central High with Syd and saw his talent developing at that early stage of his life. He was Mr. Casaday's pride and joy and we all marveled at Syds' enormous talent as a member of the Central Barnstormers.. I knew Syd as a young boy as I attended St. Joseph School in South Bend and I was born and raised on N. Niles Ave.. as a young boy I practically "lived" in the Pollack drugstore on Hill St. and South Bend Ave.. I can still see Syd working behind the soda counter. I stayed in touch with Syd and we emailed each other and I kept him informed of his classmates and what was happening.. My last two emails to him were returned to me as "undeliverable" and I knew something was amiss.. I did know he had terminal cancer.. he mentioned it to me only once in an email. We have lost a tremendous talent.. a great actor and director.. Mr. Casaday was so proud of Syd.

Editorial comment: Larry has chronicled his experiences as a young man growing up in South Bend in many published articles and reflects on his personal friendship with Sydney Pollack He now resides in Mishawaka)

Editorial Note:

It would be difficult to add anything more to a profile of Sydney Pollack that hasn't been written much better and more completely by the professionals in the business of writing about celebrities in the print and electronic media. For more complete information on Sydney please go to a search engine and simply type 'Sydney Pollack' in the subject box. This is written to focus attention on the fact Syd was one of the most accomplished professionals who graduated from South Bend Central High School.

Did you hear.....

...about the irate senior citizen customer calling the newspaper offices, loudly demanded to know where her Sunday edition was. Ma'am, said the employee, today is Saturday. The Sunday paper is not delivered til Sunday. There was quite a pause on the other end of the phone, followed by a ray of recognition. "So that's why no one was in church today." Hey! It can happen..... Or....

A state trooper stops an elderly lady for speeding in a 50 mile zone and asks her nicely if he can see her license. She replied in a huff, "I wish you guys would get your act together. Just yesterday you take away my license and then today you expect me to show it to you.....makes sense to me! Or...

The senior citizen who was playing Trivial Pursuit one night. It was his turn and he landed on Science & Nature. His question was.. 'If you are in a vacuum and someone calls your name, can you hear it?' The old guy thought a time and then asked, 'Is it on or off?' Ok..ok...ya gotta admit they run quietly now days....

The road to success is always under construction!

The Story of the two wolves.....Which wolf are you?

One evening an old Cherokee sage told his grandson about a battle that goes on inside people. He said, .... 'My son the battle is between two wolves inside us all.'

One is Evil.....It is angry, envy, jealousy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority lies, false pride, superiority and ego.

The other is Good.....It is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, generosity, truth, compassion and faith.

The grandson asks ... 'Which wolf wins the battle grandpa?' The old Cherokee simply replied..... 'The one you feed.'
